Explain the problem or challenge your project addresses.
We had to edit the code a lot because sometimes the turtle would not move

In github i learned how to make a repository and something tjat worked well was we made what we wanted to with some exceptions and we used our research skills and thinking because we researched and thought how to make the code